Madison, Wisconsin -- Erik C. Peterson, United States Attorney for the Western District of Wisconsin, announced that Anzill O. Kelly, DOB 04/05/1985, and co-defendant Jarvis T. McKee, DOB 01/05/1982, both of Madison, Wisconsin, were sentenced today by U.S. District Judge Barbara B. Crabb to 24 months and 105 months in prison, respectively, for possessing with intent to distribute more than five grams of crack cocaine. Kelly and McKee both pleaded guilty to this charge in October 2006. Their sentences will be served without the possibility of parole.

On April 18, 2006, police and federal agents went to Kelly's apartment to arrest her and McKee on outstanding warrants. After the arrests, Kelly consented to a search of her apartment and officers recovered 5.6 grams of crack on the dresser in a bedroom she shared with McKee, and a scale and packaging materials in the kitchen. Kelly and McKee both admitted to possessing the crack with intent to distribute it.

Kelly's sentence was substantially less than McKee's because she does not have any prior convictions, whereas McKee has several. In April 2006, McKee was also on probation in Dane County for the felony offense of possession of crack cocaine.

The charges against Kelly and McKee were the result of an investigation conducted by the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives, and the Madison Police Department. The prosecution of the case has been handled by Assistant

U.S. Attorney Rita M. Rumbelow.
